By Efthymios Karousos

Almost a year ago I hadn't been on an airplane before, and I honestly thought travelling was a waste of time and energy. As a matter of fact, I wasn't too open to mobility projects either. Now after a mixed bag of a year, I am happy to say that I couldn't be more wrong. These past 12 months I watched 16 flight safety announcements, visited 6 beautiful countries and met a lot of amazing young people (like a lot, almost 300). As it turns out the world makes much more sense, once you get to see it and experience it yourself. But at the end of the day it was the people, - some more than others of course- that made this the best year of my life so far. So big thanks to those guys and hope to see everyone soon.
